

International Scholarships for the Course 2024-2025

An integrated view of Neurosciences today, from its fundamentals to its clinical applications

Outstanding research environment in a “Severo Ochoa” Center of Excellence.
Focus on the research agenda of the IN: developmental, molecular, cellular and systems neurobiology.

International student exchange agreement with the Institut Pasteur/ Université Pierre et Marie Curie, Paris, France.

Eligibility criteria

- The call is open to candidates of all nationalities.
- Preferably bachelor in Biology / Biomedicine related disciplines, although degrees in any STEM discipline will be considered
- Preferably Bachelor's average record above 8 / 10.
- Previous international mobility and/or research experience are very positively valued.

Apply for your master scholarship at the IN!

Up to 6

Number of scholarships

€ 800 / month
costs of Master registration (aprox. € 2,500)
reallocation grant

Financial support

10 months (from October '24 to July '25)

Duration

Application and deadline

Send your application including:

- Passport (pdf version).
- CV (no longer than one page).
- Academic records (dates, subjects and marks of Bachelor's and Master's degrees).
- Motivation letter in English (no longer than one page), indicating up to three IN Scientific Programs in which you would like to perform your Master's experimental work.

To so_scholar@umh.es
by 29 April 2024

Non-Spanish candidates are welcome!

All the academic activities of the Master are taught in English

Note the nationalities of previous years' scholarship recipients!

