

International Scholarships for the Course 2025-2026

An integrated view of Neurosciences today, from its fundamentals to its clinical applications

Outstanding research environment in a “Severo Ochoa” Center of Excellence.

Focus on the research agenda of the IN: developmental, molecular, cellular and systems neurobiology.

International student exchange agreement with the Institut Pasteur/ Université Pierre et Marie Curie, Paris, France.

Eligibility criteria

- The call is open to candidates of all nationalities.
- Preferably bachelor in Biology / Biomedicine related disciplines, although degrees in any STEM discipline will be considered
- Preferably Bachelor's average record above 8 / 10.
- Previous international mobility and/or research experience are very positively valued.

Apply for your master scholarship at the IN!

Up to 5

Number of scholarships

10 months
from October '25 to July '26

Duration

+ € 800 / month
costs of Master registration relocation grant

Financial support

Application and deadline

Send your application including:

- Passport (pdf version).
- CV (no longer than one page).
- Diploma and academic records (dates, subjects and marks of Bachelor's and Master's degrees).
- Motivation letter in English (no longer than one page), indicating three IN Scientific Programs in which you would like to perform your Master's experimental work.

Non-Spanish candidates are welcome!
All the academic activities of the Master are taught in English

To so\_scholar@umh.es
by 4 March 2025

